Snap-Shots Inside the Ivory City.

As soon as we got inside the gate we wondered where best to go first. Since we were at the main entrance, we decided to go up past the Tyrolean Alps on the right, and going slightly to the left, across the plaza and reaching the Louisiana monument, which is directly in front of the Cascades and Grand Basin, we stopped to see the waters turned on, for, at present, only at stated intervals do the waters rush down with any degree of splendor. When the waters gush forth with their mighty pressure, it fairly shakes the whole hill, buildings, masonry and all. After watching for some minutes this delightful occurrence, we wander back down the steps, and take a ride in a little boat, one out of many, which is moored and waiting a chance to float out under bridges and around curves—an admirable way of resting. Fresh from the boat ride we mounted the stairs, went up by the Terrace of States, then over to the right to "Jerusalem." We climbed up a steep hill and followed the walls until we found the main gateway or entrance. To this wall distance lends enchantment, for in places the staff has fallen off—but I forget, snap-shots don't show up details. As you wander around this miniature city, the high walls, the towers, and its peculiar inhabitants, you even look for the outstretched hand of the beggar asking alms. Just west of Jerusalem is the Morocco building, and to the right of this the Illinois building, with a Japanese tea house and garden to the north. Just west of the Japan building is the Observation Wheel, formerly known as Ferris Wheel. Here Skinner Road, or I should say Administration Boulevard, is reached. Following this driveway to the north we come to the Pike. First you encounter the Fire Fighters; here is a model fire department; the engines, hook and ladder, apparatus, and last and best of all the beautiful horses. You can fairly see the bravery flashing from the dark eyes of the animals as they turn their heads and watch you with an air of confidence. Then what is most pleasing to the children is the little engine with its small ponies, and you wonder if they are used for small fires only.

Coming east on the Pike on the left is the Naval Exhibit, followed by the South Sea Islanders, then the Cliff Dwellers, the Magic Whirlpool, Chinese Village, Siberian R. R. and Divers, the Creation, Old St. Louis, Japanese Village, Hagbeek's (an animal show), Seville, Under and Over the Sea, the Irish Village, and lastly the Tyrolean Alps. Coming down the right side is Battle Abbey, a Mining Camp, Cairo, its camels and little narrow streets and queer looking people. Next we find gay Paris, ancient and modern, with Moors as their neighbors, and last of all, wonderful Asia. Passing from here to the south, then just to the right of the Music Pavilion, is the Varied Industries Building, and back of this the Transportation Building. The small boy, and even the larger one who is old enough to shave, will be interested in the great engines with mammoth wheels, the model train and modern coaches, besides the first engine and oldest coach ever put on the road.

The Missouri Building is far to the left of the Cascades. Passing southward from the water way is found the Sunken Garden on the one side, and the Liberal Arts Building on the other. Just beyond these and further to the south is the U. S. Government Building. Facing west, the Missouri Building is immediately left of the U. S. Building. This section is called "Plateau of States." Over forty States and Territories have erected handsome structures on the grounds. Almost every school of architecture is represented in this beautiful wooded section given over to the States. Some of these buildings are so large and handsome that they are easily mistaken for palaces filled with exhibits. Some look like elegant residences, and yet others are built in attractive patterns of pagodas, bungalows or hunting lodges. The Grecian and Colonial orders are harmoniously blended, and the whole makes a most interesting and instructive study. When we consider that $50,000,000 have been expended in this great Exposition, it is no wonder that it is an education in itself to visit it. The Chicago Exposition covered 200 acres, the one held in Paris 125 acres, and the one in St. Louis over 250 acres under roof. The area or ground space occupied by the Paris Exposition was 350 acres, Columbia Exposition, Chicago, 633, and Louisiana Purchase Exposition, St. Louis, 1240 acres, far surpassing anything ever planned in this direction.

The cost of seeing the Fair is not going to be so much. The hotels and restaurants, with possibly a few exceptions, will serve you at the same prices asked at any other time. The railroads have promised to make the rates such that most any one who wants to spend a vacation, may do so very profitably by coming to St. Louis and spending his time within the gates of the "Ivory City."

Edge Hill Items.

Not seeing anything from this place, I will send in a few items. We are having lots of rain and farmers are behind with their crops.

farmers are behind with their crops.

We will have a very large grist mill erected at the Robinett school house, in the near future. Ben. Williams will be manager and proprietor. The capacity of the mill will be about 1000 bushels per day. He is a very energetic business man.

Mrs. J. S. Eaton contemplates making a trip to the World's Fair in a few days.

Edgar Ragan and Miss Maud Jaycox visited Mr. and Mrs. Lem Ragan Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. Fortune filled his regular appointment at Black on Sunday. He is a very able speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Connor, of Kaolin, visited home folk a few days ago.

Messrs. Cannon and Robinett made a trip to Black last Saturday and met with bad luck on their way home, striking a stump and breaking their cart down.

Misses Myrtle and Mabel Robinette attended services at Black on Sunday.

Edge Hill is an up-to-date village; about 100 of our leading farmers and merchants are going to attend the World's Fair.

W. H. Miner is getting his horse shod and fattened for the campaign of 1906, as he intends to make the race for representative, and says he wants to have everything in good shape to make his opponent trot.

PEACH BLOSSOM.

Spring Allments.

There is an aching and tired feeling; the liver, bowels and kidneys become sluggish and inactive, the digestion impaired, with little or no appetite, no ambition for anything, and a feeling that the body and mind needs toning up. The trouble is, that during the winter there has been an accumulation of waste matter in the system. Herbine will remove it, secure to the secretion a right exit, and by its tonic effect, fully restore the wasted tissues and give strength instead of weakness. 50c at Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Roselle Items.

Another rainy day has come and gone. We welcome the copious showers of spring, although many of our farmers were quite busy planting, and making ready for planting corn, but they will have to wait a few days, at least, on account of the rain.

Our present outlook for a fine crop is not as encouraging as it has been, as the fruit continues to fall. But if only one-fourth of it remains on the tree until maturity there will be plenty, as the trees are fuller than ever before.

Jno. Tesreau has returned from his trip to Washington.

Grandma Olive is on the sick list at present.

Geo. Johnson has returned to Palatka, Arkansas after spending a week with home folks.

Frank Inman spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks, and attended church. He returned to Ironton to assume his employment Monday. He is assisting Mr. Buckley on the Baptist church.

Rev. Henry Polk filled his regular appointment at Bethany church Saturday and Sunday, last. We are informed that he is attending the training school at Ironton.

Miss Ethel Barnhouse attended church in Roselle Sunday. She is visiting the Misses Lewis.

Among those attending church, from a distance, in Roselle Sunday were James Pogue of Oak Grove, Ulysses Mathews, Jno. Walker and family, Samuel White and family, A. R. Henry and family, Mrs. Charles Lamb and son, Frank Rosar and sister, Miss Mary, Arthur and Fred Brown, Geo. Brown and family of Lance and Jno. St. Clair of Blush.

Monroe Sebastian and family are visiting relatives at Lance and Fredericktown.

Miss Clemma Down is having the chills.

Those of our sick ones of last week are getting along as well as could be expected. But from some cause our items must have side-tracked, or maybe they could have reached the waste basket, as they failed to appear in print, and we mailed them on Tuesday as usual.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by The Arcadia Valley Drug Co. Trial bottles free. Reg. sizes 50c, $1.00.

Annapolis Items.

We have been having some very cool weather the past week. Mrs. King, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Berford, has returned to her home in Lutesville.

Wm. Thomas and Ed. Loyd spent Sunday with home folk.

Miss Ruth Lewis was the guest of Miss Stella Jackson Sunday.

Miss Effie Collins, of Piedmont, is visiting Miss Elsie McGlothlin. Miss Hattie Kelley was the guest of Miss Clara Thomas Sunday evening.

Miss Carma Jackson went to Bismarck Monday.

Bone Melton was in town Sunday.

Walter Kelley spent Sunday with home folk.

Misses Jamie and Annie Brewer spent Saturday with their aunt, Mrs. Loyd.

Wm. McGlothlin and wife, of De Soto, are visiting his parents at this place.

Miss Bessie Hall has returned from a visit to relatives and friends in Lutesville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Benson went to St. Louis Monday.

Miss Orva Brewer is visiting in Ironton this week.

F. P. Reese went to St. Louis Monday to attend Grand Lodge meeting.

Chester Marsh went to St. Louis Monday to attend the Fair.

Ed. Benson was in Ironton Sunday.

ROSE BUD.

Made Young Again.

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again" writes D. H. Turner of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c at The Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Obituary.

Died, at his home near Warren's Store, Mo., on Friday, February 26, 1904, John D. Lambert. He has gone and the place that knew him shall know him no more; but there is one blessed consolation that we shall meet again, where there will be no parting. He was a good father and was loved by all his associates and acquaintances. He professed religion about fourteen years ago. Men seldom think of the shadows that fall across their pathway, forever hiding from their eyes the traces of loved ones, whose loving smiles were the sunlight of their existence. We can not bring him where we are, but we can go where he is, where there will be a glorious reunion of the loved ones; what a meeting that will be, when we all gather in glory. He leaves a wife, four daughters, two sons, one brother and six sisters, besides a host of friends and relatives, to mourn his loss. Bless Thou us, Lord, in the kingdom above, where Thy grace so freely is given; as we have journeyed together on earth, receive us together in heaven.

A DAUGHTER.

World Wide Reputation.

White's Cream Vermifuge has achieved a world wide reputation as being the best of all worm destroyers, and for its tonic influence on weak and unthrifty children, as it neutralizes the acidity or sourness of the stomach, improves their digestion, and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

EXTRAORDINARY ACCOMMODATIONS AT ST. LOUIS FAIR.

Splendid Hotel Right Inside Exposition Grounds—Thousands of Rooms at Very Moderate Rates—Ideal Conditions.

Visitors to the World's Fair at St. Louis need not fear either lack of accommodations or extortionate prices. Under the supervision of Mr. E. M. Staller, the well-known caterer of Buffalo, this fact alone is sufficient guarantee that the cuisine and service will always be of the very highest order.

Those who remember the heartbreaking weariness of the long journey homeward after a tiring day at the World's Fair at Chicago or the Pan-American at Buffalo will instantly appreciate the extraordinary convenience and comfort afforded by this residing right within the Exposition grounds. No admission fee other than the first will be needed by guests of The Inside Inn, while the saving effect of carfare, suburban train service, etc., will prove a valuable item to those who study economy.

The enormous capacity of the Inside Inn assures ample accommodations for all—no matter when or in what numbers they come—but those who prefer to secure their rooms in advance may make reservations now for any period during the life of the Fair. A post card addressed to The Inside Inn, Administration Bldg., World's Fair Grounds, St. Louis, Mo., will bring a most interesting booklet, giving every possible detail.

FOR SALE—Organ; only $20 at my rooms in the bank building.

Most Remarkable Pictures.

To the Editor of The Register:

For the benefit of your patrons and to complete the Sunday Post-Dispatch will issue free a series of most remarkable pictures of the World's Universal Exposition. The first picture of the series will be issued with the Sunday Post-Dispatch on May 22.

These pictures are not colored photographs, but are reproductions in colors of original paintings by great artists, the most striking pictures of the Fair that have been produced. They portray accurately in all of the original colors the artist's wonderful conception of what visitors will actually see in St. Louis.

Magnificent buildings, lagoons, cascades, beautifully shaded pathways, capable of reproduction only by the artist's brush, in every detail is amazingly represented. The artist has pictured the great mass of sightseers so carefully that one cannot fail to realize at a glance what a cosmopolitan center the St. Louis Fair will be. So wonderfully lifelike are the reproductions one almost feels they are living pictures.

These pictures are ready to frame. Those who do not want to frame them will surely keep them as souvenirs of the greatest Fair that has been or ever will be attempted. This is really a rare opportunity and it will not be fully realized until the title of the series has been received by the Post-Dispatch readers. Then there will be a scramble. Many will be disappointed, for it will be impossible to fill back orders. It is important, therefore, that your patrons give their order to the local newspaper dealer as early as possible. This will avoid disappointment.
